During the period of such assignment, the owner-assignor shall not have the right to claim any rights of membership as to such property. Further, the owner-assignor and the member-assignee shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all dues, fees and assessments becoming due and payable to the Corporation during the period of such assignment and any maintenance fee or membership fee in such amount as would have been due and payable had the property been sold by the owner-assignor and the owner-assignor and the member-assignee shall execute such written agreements and instruments as the Corporation may request obligating the owner-assignor and the member-assignee as set forth in this sub-section F. The President shall call a special meeting upon petition signed by not less than ten percent (10%) of all the members entitled to vote at a meeting. The notice of a special meeting shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice.

Place

C. Meetings of the Corporation membership shall be held in the County of Mecosta, State of Michigan, at such suitable place convenient for the members as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Notice and Waiver of Notice

D. The Secretary shall give written notice of each annual or regularly scheduled meeting of the membership, at least twenty (20) days but not more than sixty (60) days, or special meeting, at least ten (10) days but not more than sixty (60) days, before the date of the meeting, either personally, by mail or by electronic transmission, to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting or by including such notice prominently displayed in a newspaper or other periodical regularly published at least semiannually by or in behalf of the Corporation and mailed at postage rates complying with the regulations of the United States Postal Service addressed to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting stating the time, place and purpose of the meeting. Attendance of a person at a meeting constitutes a waiver of notice of the meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Adjournment Notice

E. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place of the adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken and at the adjourned meeting only such business is transacted as might have been transacted at the original meeting. Provided, that if any such adjournment is for more than sixty (60) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given pursuant to Section D above of this Article IX.

Record Date and Members of Record

F. For the purpose of determining members of record in good standing and entitled to notice and to vote at a membership meeting or for the purpose of any other action available to a voting member, the Bylaws may provide for fixing, or in the absence of such provision the Board of Directors shall fix, in advance, a date as the record date for such determination of members. Provided, the record date shall be a date which is not more than sixty (60) days nor less than fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days before any other action. Such determination shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting, unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Voting List

G. The Secretary shall make and certify a complete list of the members of record entitled to vote at a members' meeting or entitled to take any other action available to a voting member. The list shall be arranged alphabetically with the address of each member and number of votes held by each member, be produced at the time and place of the meeting, be subject to inspection by any member during the meeting, and be prima facie evidence as to who are members entitled to inspect the list or to vote at the meeting.

Quorum

H. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the Corporation members of record entitled to vote at a meeting shall constitute a quorum at the opening of a meeting. Members of record shall be counted toward the quorum whether they vote in person, by proxy or by electronic or absentee ballot. The members present in person, or by proxy at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum. In the absence of a quorum at the opening of a meeting, such meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, and at any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted as might have been transacted at the original meeting.

Proxies

I. A member of record shall be allowed to vote either in person or by an agent authorized to act for the member by written proxy signed and dated by the member or an authorized agent or representative of the member. A proxy may be revoked at the pleasure of the member executing it, unless the proxy is irrevocable. An individual may not vote more than five (5) proxies at any meeting.

Ballots

J. A member of record entitled to vote shall be allowed to vote on any action permitted to be taken at an annual or special meeting, including the election of directors, by mail-in ballot or by electronic voting procedure pursuant to procedures set forth in the Bylaws, or in the absence of such procedures, pursuant to procedures established by resolution of the Board of Directors. All ballots received shall be counted on the day of the meeting at which the election is held.

Casting of Votes

K. A member of record entitled to vote may vote for as many persons as there are Directors to be elected, or for as many issues upon which a vote is to be taken. Cumulative voting is prohibited.

Voting; Recess and Adjournment

L. The voting at all meetings of the membership shall be by written mail-in ballot or electronic voting, except for motions to recess or adjourn which may be by voice vote.

Conduct of Meetings

M. At every meeting of the membership, the President of the Corporation shall be the presiding officer. In the absence or disability of the President, the Vice-President shall preside. In the absence or disability of both the President and Vice-President, a majority of the members present in person and entitled to vote shall choose another member to preside as Chairman.

The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as Secretary of the meeting. In the absence or disability of the Secretary, the presiding officer shall appoint a secretary for the meeting from the membership.

Provided, that any person whose removal from office is to be voted on at the meeting shall be considered disqualified from presiding at the meeting, or serving as secretary.

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the conduct of all meetings of the Corporation, when not in conflict with these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws or laws of the State of Michigan.

Election Inspectors

N. Prior to any meeting of the membership, the Board of Directors may appoint three or more persons, provided the total shall be an odd number, as Election Inspectors for the meeting. In the absence of such appointments by the Board of Directors prior to the meeting, the presiding officer at the meeting shall make the appointments. The presiding officer at the meeting shall have the authority to appoint Election Inspectors in addition to those appointed by the Board of Directors, and shall make whatever appointments are necessary to achieve an odd number of Election Inspectors. In case a person appointed fails to appear or act, the vacancy may be filled by the Board of Directors in advance of the meeting, or at the meeting by the presiding officer.

The Election Inspectors shall determine the members entitled to vote represented at the meeting; the existence of a quorum; the validity and effect of proxies; receive votes and ballots; hear and determine challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote; count and tabulate votes and ballots; determine the results; and do such other acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all members. The Election Inspectors shall report in writing to the meeting on any of the facts found by them or matters determined by them, such report to be signed by a majority of the Election Inspectors. The report of a majority of the Election Inspectors shall be the report of the Election Inspectors. The report of the Election Inspectors is prima facie evidence of the facts stated and of the vote as certified by the Election Inspectors.

Manner of Acting

O. When an action, other than election or removal of Directors, is to be taken by vote of the members, it shall be authorized by a majority of the votes cast, unless a greater plurality is required by these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws or by Michigan law.

Action Without Meeting

P. Any action required or permitted to be taken at an annual, regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all members of record entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of the action without a meeting by less than unanimous consent shall be given to members who have not consented in writing.

The joint venture shall not involve the sharing or delegation of Board authority and/or control with or to others.

The limitations contained in this subparagraph C shall not be construed to impair the power granted to the Corporation under the Nonprofit Corporation Act to make contracts in furtherance of its purposes.
